

Friends of West Michigan Business “Politics & Pints”

March 1, July 26, and October 4, 2010 | Reception 5:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Sponsorship range: $750 - $2,500

Overview

Through Politics & Pints, the Chamber connects professionals with elected officials from across the political spectrum in an atmosphere that promotes conversation and networking.

Our organization has partnered with a number of groups including the Grand Rapids Young Professionals, Grand Rapids Jaycees, Young Lawyers Section of the Grand Rapids Bar Association, MAP, BLEND and many others for this successful event.

The event is hosted by the Friends of West Michigan Business, the Grand Rapids Area Chamber of Commerce PAC, the region's largest non-partisan political action committee, dedicated to electing pro-business candidates to public office.

Why sponsor Friends of West Michigan Business “Politics & Pints”?

- Align your company interests with young professionals
- Show support of the Friends of West Michigan Business and its efforts to elect pro-business candidates
- Build & strengthen relationships with elected officials and other prominent members of the community
- Improved visibility
- Local media exposure

Sponsorship benefits at designated levels include:

- Recognition at the event
- Acknowledgement in print and/or electronic Chamber communications

Specific sponsorship levels and benefits are listed on the Sponsorship Agreement on reverse. Deadline dates determined when event date is scheduled.
