

Rick Keyes
Executive Vice President, Supply Chain Operations & Manufacturing
Meijer, Inc.

Rick is currently the Executive Vice President of Supply Chain and Manufacturing of Meijer, Inc. in Grand Rapids, MI. Meijer operates almost 200 self-service combination supermarket-discount department stores located in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Kentucky.

In his role, Rick is responsible for all distribution, logistics and manufacturing operations. Rick is also responsible for merchandise planning, which is responsible for all inventory planning and store replenishment.

Rick began his career with Meijer in 1989 and has held various leadership positions in retail operations and supply chain, including Group Vice President of Operations.

Rick received a Bachelors of Science Pharmacy (BSPH) from Ohio Northern University.