

Contractor/Remodelor

- The contractor/remodelor will contribute expertise about structural elements within the project. If the contractor/remodelor has experiences in building for the disabled, he/she will be able to provide additional insights and options for the team involved in the home modification project. He/she will look to the health care providers for guidance in what is necessary for the client.