

Insurance Company (third party payer)

- If a third party payer is involved with a home modification project or new build, it is possible one will work with a variety of their representatives, such as a case manager/adjuster/defense attorney.
- Adjuster – decision maker - will work closely with all parties to determine the insurance company's financial obligation for paying for home modification project or new build.