

Specialty Vendors

- Specialty vendors are team members such as elevator companies, ceiling track lift system companies, and walk in bath tub companies, etc. These professionals are there to provide their expertise regarding their unique products. These individuals will work with all parties of the home modification project to ensure that the correct product is purchased and properly implemented. These individuals should work closely with the client's medical practitioners as well.