

Structural Welding

We have AWS certified welders and along with the International Training Institute, we can review your welding needs and help you select the correct procedures and requirements for the job. We can also arrange for current weld testing, in-house or on-site, with an independent Certified Weld Instructor.